PETRO: INO'S MURDER That Lieut, Joseph Petrosiao of New York, never had a chance to get out of Palerno alive, was the sum of the information obtained yesterday by Italian formation obtained yesterday by Italian directives of New York from former residents of Palermo, who disclosed to the police information that they had received from the Italian city and knowledge of police conditions there.

The detectives were told that the Camorra was so strong that it had its agents morra was so strong that it had its agents in every police headquarters in Sicily and couthern Italy. Hardly had Petrosino reported to the ministry of police in Rome and later to the prefect of police in Palermo, it was a secret, but the Camorra's agents and secret spies reported him to the headquarters of the

However the prefect at Pa'ermo might sympathize with Petrosino's mission and wish to aid him, it was pointed out that he was powerless to prevent the news of the arrival of the great New York detective from reaching the Camorra.

In spite of such precautions as Petrotive from reaching the Camorra.

In spite of such precautions as Petrosino d d observe, such as registering under an assumed name, the Camorra knew his every step. He was watched and followed until the Camorra decided upon the most favorable time for his death, and then he was assassinated. The plats and then he was assassinated. The plats were so well laid and the bullets so well directed that Petrosino did not live to give a single clew as to his slayers, and there is no evidence to incriminate any there is no evidence to incriminate any single individual.

> BRYAN A RECEPTIVE CANDI-DATE

Mr. William J. Bryan, in an interview in Ohicago, yesterday, left the impression that he would be the receptive, if not an active, candidate for the United States Senate from Nebraska in 1911, to succeed Elmer J. Barkett, republican.

"I do not know yet whether I shall be a candidate," said Mr. Bryan, "If there seems a good chance to elect to the Senate some other Nebraska democrat, it will please me better than to be a candida'e myself. I would not say that I would under no circumstances accept the nomination, because no one is wise enough to decide on conditions in ad-vance. I think the democratic party is in better condition than at any time since 1892, and has an excellent chance to control the next Congress."

TEXAS LEGISLATURE EXCITED After the Senate had expelled one of its members and the House had requested the speaker to resign, a request that was igacrad, the regular session of the Bascom Thomas was the senator to suffer expulsion. Saversi times in the last session charges of corruption were made by him. A committee, however, declared the charges ungrounded. Fricay the charges were repeated, Smalor Thomas diclaring that members of the Senate and certain lobbyists had been perties to irregular proceedings. But Saturday night the report of a commirtse declaring the charges without basis was adopted. A resolution charging Senator Toomss with maliciously maligning members of the Sua's came next and his expulsion was voted.

In the House the charges against Speaker Kennedy were that he had secared the sa aries of cierks not in at-ten ance on the legislature. A resolu-tion was adopt d by a vote of 71 to 48, asking the resignation of the speaker. Instead of complying he declared the House fically adjourned and immedistely reconvened it in ex ra session.

Following the resignation of A. M.
Kennedy as speaker of the House in compliance with a r. solution adopted before the close of the regular session saturday and the election of John J. Marshall as his successor yesterday the House adjourned until Wednesday, Mr. Marshall is a compromise candidate.
